

it's all greek..... (roman, viking or anglo-saxon)!

Observation drawing and design

Get "cross-curricular" with your topic planning and book an exciting art session that draws inspiration from real and replica artefacts! Following the success of our "It's all Greek" workshop we have added Roman, Viking or Anglo-Saxon topics.

Pupils handle replica and real objects including battle helmets, armour, day to day objects such as combs, brooches and pottery then use them as inspiration for their own artwork.

Pupils will become master craftspeople of the chosen period and design shields, helmets, artefacts, brooches and pots using a range of art materials to produce a stunning piece of artwork involving nine designs on a grid.
